Graphic 2: “Your Farm. Your Finances. Your Voice.”

(Woman watching tractor in field)

Caption A

Georgia Farm Bureau is conducting a survey to get an honest look at the state of farming today — including input costs, debt load, and your outlook for the future. We want the data to reflect the real experiences of Georgia farmers.

Take five minutes to make your voice count. Complete the survey by July 31st.

Caption B

What's it really like to farm in Georgia right now? We're asking farmers directly — about their operations, their finances, and where they see things headed. The results will help shape how we represent agriculture in the months ahead.

Share your perspective by July 31st.

Usage Notes

Each caption pair can be used on separate posting dates to extend the campaign through the July 31st deadline.

These captions are written to be neutral in tone — they invite participation without framing the survey around any particular outcome or concern.
